

Contents

Sophie Meinecke (1831-1925) from Hartwarden, emigrated to California in 1858 (with texts by Gustav Adolf Kaper, Almut and Wilhelm Große-Nobis as well as a project seminar under the direction of Karl H. Schneider with Anna Quell, Julian Ingelmann and Cosima Discher)	8
Emigrants of the Jans-Wenstrup family – from South Oldenburg to Cincinnati (article by Stephanie Fredeweß-Wenstrup)	48
Heinrich Joseph Böhmer (1807-1868) from Vechta emigrated 1833 to Ohio (from the family of Heinrich J. Böhmer; Vechtaer Sonntags-Blatt)	67
From school dropout to recognized publicist, Friedrich Ludwig Hoffmann – a biographical sketch (by Hans Sauer, Varel)	90
Hinrich (Henry) Maas (1837-1914) from Buttel (Neuenhuntrorf) emigrated to Iowa in 1854 (by Henry Maas)	106
Hermann Christoph Klävemann and Meta Joost from Oldenbrok and Bollenhagen emigrated to Texas in 1874/1876 (by Callie Hertel née Klävemann and Jon Todd Koenig)	120
Emigrant Gustav Götze (1823-1903) from Butjadingen, emigrated 1856 to Port Washington (Wisconsin), article by Heddo Peters	136
Hermann Schröder (1850-1939) emigrated 1881 to Jerauld County, South Dakota (with material from the Oltmanns family in Osterscheps and from Ruth Fink née Schroeder)	143
Johann Schütte (1788-1862) from Delmenhorst, emigrated to Manitowoc in 1848 (with an essay by John Schütte)	152
From mail robber to father of immigrants - Friedrich Ernst (1796-1848) from Varel	166
Hinrich Hinrichs (*1815) from Hohenkirchen, emigrated to Baltimore in 1852	178
Carl Brunssen (1891-1971) from Westerscheps, emigrated to Keystone (Iowa) in 1904	185
Harbers, Blohm, Wulff and Rogge from the Wesermarsch (Schwei, Jade, Ovelgönne) emigrated to the USA in 1849 (excerpt from a 1931 article by Henry Frederick Harbers)	188
Supplement to the Rogge and Mönning families (texts by Rbova Rogge and Manfred Mönning)	199
Wilhelm Ostertun: Letters of the Hooksiel Boy Who Became New Mexico's Secretary of the Treasury in 1863 (excerpts from a book by Dierk Stuckenschmidt)	203
Georg Oltmanns (1903-1985), emigrated from Moorburg (Westerstede) to Chicago in 1926	218
Poppe Emken Müller (1779-1837) from Stumpens (Wangerland) emigrated to Illinois in 1837	230
The brothers Feldhus, emigrated from Zwischenahn to Brooklyn in 1883/1891	244
Friedrich Lauts (1858-1913) from Sande, emigrated about 1890 to Nebraska (with documents from Tony Lauts)	246
Anton Thie (1817-1890) from Langförden, emigrated to Cincinnati in 1845 (after preparatory work and texts by Joseph Thie, Antonius Thie and Franz Ostendorf)	252

Wilhelm Francksen (1831-1876) from Butjadingen emigrated to Wisconsin in 1861	271
Adolph Meinecke (1830-1905) from Burhave emigrated in 1848 to Milwaukee	282
Helene Küchler (1834-1909) from Wechloy, emigrated 1862 (Galveston) and returned in 1866	289
Confectioner J.H. Thias from Böen (Löningen) emigrated to New Orleans in 1833 (excerpt from an article from 1979 by Clemens Woltermann)	296
The brothers Heinrich (1867-1912) and August Decker (1869-1952) from Jaderberg, emigrated to Texas in 1883 and 1885 (based on a booklet by Wilhelma Schmidt)	298
Hermann Georg Rickels (1905-1966) from Astederfeld (municipality of Zetel) emigrated to Nebraska in 1923/24 (article by Jens Rickels)	306
Gerhard Mönnich (1816-1878) from Hude 1857 settled in Hooper (Nebraska) with about 350 subsequent emigrants from the Oldenburg area (based on papers by Manfred Mönning, Charlotte Darling née Monnich and Jean Carhart)	312
Georg Anton Meerpohl (1887-1921) from Langförden (Vechta), emigrated to Cincinnati (article by Jim Meerpohl)	329
The brothers Willers from Hollwege (Westerstede), 1888/1892 emigrated to Nebraska (with texts by Lyndon Irwin, Georg Willers and the Leffers family, Hollwege)	330
Franz H. Minkenberg (1854-1934) from Mühlen (Steinfeld) emigrated to Marysville (Kansas) in 1893 (after preparatory work by Rudolf Timphus and Peter Sieve)	348
Johann Heinen from Ekern and Meta Wittenberg from Westerscheps emigrated to Texas in 1904 (article by Scott Wieding).	352
Anna Gesina Frederika Sprung (1851-1946) from Pfenningstedterfeld in Dötlingen, emigrated to Cincinnati in 1874 (article by Steve Hollands).	357
Adventures at sea and the emigration of Captain Adde Gerhard Hayssen (1811-1889) from Strohausen in 1859 (with the memories of Adde Gerhard Hayssen, 1888)	360
Emigrants from the Delmenhorst Fitger family (article by Herbert Frommeyer, Delmenhorst) .	378
Ferdinand Krieger (1838-1909) from Rodenkirchen, 1862-1865 in the American Civil War .	387
Brüning family from Bohlenberge (Zetel), emigrated 1857 to Eureka (Illinois), later living in the village of Bruning (with texts by Ruth E. Meisgeier née Bruning)	391
Theodor Diedrichs (1855-1932) from Buttel (Neuenhuntrorf) emigrated 1881 to Anaheim (California) (according to documents of Frauke Diedrichs)	400
Oeltjen siblings from Moorburg/Hollwege (Westerstede) moved to Nebraska starting in 1887 (with a report and material by Erika Hundeling)	407
Adolph Oltmanns (1873-1957) from Edeweicht, emigrated 1888 to Holyoke (Minnesota) (with memories of Gregory Oltmanns).	410
Páriga – Patikan – Padeken – Asegut – and actually Kolschen (article by Irmigegner-Sünkler)	413
Buechner family from Hasbergen, emigration 1853 (article by Jean Weddle)	416
Annotations; literature and research sources; picture credits	418